Immigration, Work and Prosperity

Notwithstanding that one of Canada's greatest needs is a larger population, the amazing fact is that whenever immigration shows a substantial increase, and it becomes apparent that the tide of settlement is settling in strongly Canada-wards, an outcry is raised in labor circles and influences are brought to bear to discourage immigration. Nor is organized labor alone in voicing objections and offering opposition. Frequently church bodies, and sometimes national societies, adopt the same attitude.

This opposition to immigration sometimes finds expression in an attempt to induce the Government and other agencies interested in immigration to discontinue, or greatly curtail, their efforts to induce immigration to Canada. At other times it is revealed by a campaign of the most mischievous, misleading and, not infrequently, absolutely false statements regarding Canadian conditions, a most unpatriotic proceeding.

Most of this opposition is the result of ignorance or the acceptance of half-baked theories on the part of those who seek to prevent or restrict immigration. Some people object to anybody being allowed to enter Canada unless they speak the same language, dress in the same fashion, and worship at the same altar as they themselves do. These timid souls are fearful that they may be swamped, and they insist on Canada being regarded as a special preserve for themselves set aside in the world by an all-wise Providence with "No admittance" signs against people from other lands. They refuse to recognize the fact that all the great national groups of today, including the British, are the result of a fusion, an assimilation, of races.

Organized labor, on the other hand, opposes immigration because a majority of labor Union members entertain the mistaken idea that by maintaining a scarcity of labor, the opportunities for employment of those already in the country are enhanced, and that higher wages will likewise prevail. The economic and industrial history of the world proves otherwise.

A Melbourne, Australia, man writing in the London Daily Mail declares that progress and development in Australia are both being stifled and held back by the excessive cost of labor. One of the crying needs of Australia to bring about permanent prosperity is the carrying out of irrigation schemes on a huge scale. The recent drought has once again emphasized the old lesson, and it is known that under the benign skies of Australia simple methods of irrigation like those practised by the peasants of Lombardy would produce astonishing results. But the problem of Australian irrigation is said to be like a hundred other problems there. It is easy to point out what might be done and what should be done, but much more difficult to get it done. The high cost of labor makes it impossible. As a result the farmer and his family struggles along as best they can with rude skill and appliances, but with low efficiency, postponed improvements, and backwardness of agricultural development.

The Labor Unionist looks on immigration as threatening his employment and as a menace to the established standard of wages. He refuses to see that a still greater menace lies in the retarded development of his country, but which development would bring increased employment and good wages for all. He overlooks the fact that immigration, upon a scale which Australia will almost certainly never experience, had little or no effect upon the standard of employment and wages in the United States; rather did it maintain that standard by incessant expansion. The one thing to keep up, or augment, wages in Australia, or in Canada for that matter, would be great area of development. Compared with what it might be the rate of present development is slow.

The most prosperous period in Canada in the experience of the present generation was during those years following the introduction of an aggressive immigration policy under Clifford Sifton, and when immigrants were pouring into the country. Following the depression of the after-the-war years Canada is once again experiencing better times and an increasing measure of industrial activity and prosperity, with employment plentiful and wages good, and at the same time immigration is heavier than at any time since the outbreak of the war, with an increase of 68 per cent over last year.

And because of this increase immigration, once again the cry is raised to put a stop to it. Canadians as a whole are asked by one section of the population, and for purely selfish and utterly mistaken reasons, to kill the goose that is laying the golden eggs for the Dominion of the present day, while at the same time being productive of a greater development and more prosperous future.

Cobra Deaf to Sound

The cobra is deaf to all sounds, its hearing apparatus consisting of a delicate membrane which receives only ground vibrations. Indian charmers, knowing this, tap the box or basket in which the reptile is kept, partly stunning the creature by the force of the vibrations. It is thus rendered tractable so it can be handled.

Will Not Eliminate Fools

Perhaps the effort to invent a "fool proof" airplane will be successful. There is no reason to doubt that aviation will become safer as human ingenuity develops new devices.

But "fool proof" is a large claim. Older means of transportation are not that. And the supply of fools is not likely to be exhausted.

Peace River Coal

Millions of Tons Superior to Highest Grade American Coal

There are millions of tons of very high grade bituminous coal in the Peace River district of Alberta, of a quality superior to the highest grade of American coal, according to D. H. McDougall, former general manager of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company and vice-president of the Empire Steel Corporation, who is in Halifax after a visit to the Alberta coal deposits, about which he has prepared a report.

Mr. McDougall said he did not think the development of these coal fields would affect the coal industry in Eastern Canada, as Alberta coal would always find a ready market along the Pacific coast of the United States.

He described the Peace River district deposits as being the "greatest in Canada" and said they were available for mining at the lowest operating costs.

Meet Success on Canadian Farms

Britishers Train in Old Country to Learn Conditions in Canada

So successful on Canadian farms have been young bachelors who, prior to residence in this country were students in agriculture at the Haddleigh Salvation Army Schools in Essex, England, that the Army will shortly receive into those institutions their first classes of married men destined for farm lands in the Dominion. The course will be given during six months, and will mean a thorough training in branches of agriculture, particularly adapted to conditions in Canada.

Those who have tested out numerous liniments will agree that where something is needed to dislodge a deep-seated, more or less chronic condition there is nothing to compare with Nerviline. A HAPPY CHILDHOOD A MATTER OF HEALTH

Let Baby's Own Tablets Keep Your Children Well

Little children very quickly get out of sorts. By prompt treatment they can usually just as quickly be set right again. Most of their troubles arise in the first place from the stomach or bowels; that is why a good cleansing-out is the first thing prescribed by the doctor. Formerly castor oil was the means used to bring this about; now-a-days Baby's Own Tablets do the same work, but without trouble to the parent or discomfort to the little one. Children take Baby's Own Tablets happily because there is no nasty taste and because no gripping after-pains follow their use.

As a specific for childhood indigestion, vomiting, constipation, colic, colds, teething pains, etc., there is nothing to equal Baby's Own Tablets. They never do harm and always do good. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Carry Fish by Airplane

SEND OUT APPEAL FROM FLORIDA FOR RELIEF FUNDS

Miami, Fla.—Prostrate under the ravages of the tropical hurricane and with suffering among the injured and homeless almost indescribable, Miami has appealed to the people of the United States for a vast sum for relief and rehabilitation work.

The message went out immediately after Henry M. Baker, National director of disaster relief for the American Red Cross, had arrived here and taken charge of the relief work in all of the stricken districts of Florida.

While awaiting a response to its urgent cry for help, the city, with aid of federal, states and other agencies, went doggedly ahead with its relief work. Thousands of doctors, nurses, soldiers, sailors, marines and other relief workers labored to care for the injured and homeless and to recover the dead still imprisoned in many of the 5,000 homes that were wrecked and in the debris-littered waters of Biscayne Bay.

The force on hand is proving inadequate for the task. Red Cross headquarters announced that additional nurses were urgently needed as well as serums for use in preventing epidemics. Aeroplanes have been bringing in anti-toxins and as fast as they arrive are sent northward again for additional supplies.

For The Public Health

Need Widespread Campaign to Educate the General Public

Saskatoon.—The necessity of a widespread campaign to educate the general public as to the means of combating diphtheria, small pox and typhoid fever, was strongly emphasized by Dr. H. H. Seymour, Department of Public Health, Regina, in addressing the Saskatchewan Medical Association in session at the University of Saskatchewan.

The speaker suggested a definite plan of action which provided for the co-operation of the medical men, the Department of Education, the press, the clergy and every other organization that could further the work.

The association expressed its complete endorsement of the scheme.

Other speakers were Dr. E. E. Shepley, Saskatoon; Dr. J. S. Brown, Saskatoon; Dr. George C. Hale, London, Ont., and Dr. W. R. Coles, Regina.

An official notice has been issued from Conservative headquarters in Ottawa to Conservative Senators, Conservative members-elect of the House of Commons and unsuccessful Conservative candidates in the recent elections of a gathering to be held in the Parliament Buildings on that date. The object of the meeting is "to consider the course to be pursued by the Conservative Party in the forthcoming session."

Work On H. B. Railway

Expect 1,000 Men Will be Employed Until End of Season

The Pas, Man.—Two hundred miles of trackage on the Hudson's Bay Railway has reached first lift stage. It is now good for trains running 25 miles per hour and with final lift in the spring it will be in first class condition and ready for anything.

This trackage is 175 miles out from The Pas and between Miles 224 and 254, gangs are working both ways to finish the work on the intervening gap. The pioneer gang is at Mile 317, 28 miles from Kettle River bridge, the present end of the steel, which point will be reached inside a month.

Cuts have all been widened and drained and gangs are at work renewing and replacing wooden bridges. Four carpenter crews are erecting water tanks. The telegraph line is now in shape and in operation as far as Mile 317.

Two steam shovels have been continuously working at Mile 127 and 254 respectively with six trains disposing of the output.

Three hundred and twenty thousand ties have been distributed during the season, 265,000 of which have been placed in the road, all except 100,000 being creosoted, thus ensuring as permanent a job as possible.

The number of men employed is increasing. A month ago it was 700, now there are 825 on the payroll and another big gang is expected tomorrow, making the total well over 900. The 1,000 mark may be reached before the season closes. The change which has taken place in the road during the last couple of months is almost incredible and in another month the engineers hope to have 300 miles completed.

As soon as freezeup compels the stopping of the work on the grade the men will be employed in clearing right-of-way, burning the replaced ties and in other work, which can be done at that time.

Sees Another Labor Government For Britain

MacDonald Party Will Win in the Next Election says Hon. F. O. Roberts

Montreal.—Predictions that in the next general British elections the Labor Party with Ramsey MacDonald at its head would be returned to office with a sufficient majority to shape and put into effect those policies which the working men so far had been unable to obtain through industrial organization, even through the great general strike, was made by the Rt. Hon. F. O. Roberts, who was Minister of Pensions in the MacDonald Government. The speech was at the convention of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress.

Mr. Roberts is fraternal delegate of the British General Trades Union Congress and he dealt with the coal strike and the general strike denunciation of Premier Baldwin, the Bishop of London and Dean Inge being enlivening parts of a speech which stirred the convention deeply.

That the "reds" never would gain North America was a statement made by James B. Connors, president of the Switchmen's Union, who is fraternal delegate of the American Federation of Labor.

Ship Is Scuttled

Sea Valves on Old Man-of-War Opened by Mischievous Boys

Sydney, N.S.—The old wooden man-of-war, Pelican, once one of the smartest vessels of the British North American squadron, was sunk at her moorings here election night by mischievous boys who opened her sea valves. She now lies in 25 feet of water, and an effort will be made to raise her next spring. Citizens of Sydney are planning to purchase the old vessel.

MORE SETTLED CONDITIONS AND IMPROVED TRADE

Montreal.—"Whatever the adverse influence of a political campaign upon business—and that which ended on the 14th was inconsiderable—it has ceased to be," says the monthly business summary of the Bank of Montreal.

"The incoming Government has secured a majority sufficient for its purpose—one giving reasonable assurance of stability during the ordinary term of office, and a factor favoring continued improvement of trade."

Speaking of crop conditions the summary says:

"Gathering the harvest is the work of the moment and as a whole the harvest at a conservative estimate is well up to the average."

"Business generally remains satisfactory and the outlook presents no cause for misgivings."

Have Not Definitely Rejected Conference

But Representatives of the Striking Miners Condemn Prime Minister's Proposal

London.—The entire executive committee of the British Miners' Federation met Premier Stanley Baldwin and the cabinet coal committee in Downing street and declared Mr. Baldwin's latest plan to end the coal strike was a complete change of front from the earlier promise to the miners made by Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer. Although condemning the Prime Minister's proposal that the miners yield on the point of national bargaining with the mine owners, the strikers' representatives did not definitely reject the compromise, but left loopholes open to allow for further negotiations with the Government.

Sikorsky Hopes to Have Plane Ready for Trans-Atlantic Flight in Spring

Westbury, N.Y.—Igor Sikorsky, designer and builder of the ill-fated S-35, in which two of Captain Fonck's crew lost their lives in an attempted take-off for Paris, hopes to have another plane built by spring for a second attempt at a non-stop trans-Atlantic flight, he states.

It was learned that plans are already in preparation for the construction of a plane. Mr. Sikorsky intimated that in the next flight, he means to go along as mechanic to prove his confidence in his own work.

Fortune Returning Through Coal Strike

Hugo Stinnes, Jr., Takes Long Term Contracts From Former British Markets

Berlin.—Hugo Stinnes, Jr., 29-year-old heir of Germany's war-time Croesus, today is regaining the financial throne which was his by right of inheritance and from which he was ousted last year after a brief period as head of the vast combination of trusts created by his father.

Thanks to the British coal strike, now in its fifth month, the younger Hugo's fortune is returning. Adroitly exploiting the small properties he retained after last year's crash, Hugo, Jr., has developed a coal export business from which, according to his associates, he has pocketed within 100 days from $1,400,000 to $3,000,000.

France, Scandinavia, Holland and South America have purchased his offerings. It was estimated that his sales had increased from 2,000,000 to 2,500,000 tons as a result of the British strike, and he has obtained many long term coal contracts in former British markets thereby assuring continued profits.

Would Regret King's Absence

London Paper says British Liberals Should Take Tip from Canada

London.—"It will be regrettable from every point of view if, as seems only too probable, Mr. Mackenzie King will be unable to attend the Imperial conference," says the Liberal weekly paper, Truth.

"The Liberal leaders in the Mother Land will have particular cause to regret Mr. King's absence from London," Truth adds, "for who is more fitted than he to give useful tips on the way to sweep the country?"

Continuing in a humorous vein, Truth proceeds to suggest that Mackenzie King should be invited to preside over a friendly and strictly private conference at which Lord Oxford and Asquith, Lloyd George, Walter Runciman, M.P., and a few other choice spirits could consult with him freely on the best method of leading a party.

Falling this, the next best thing would be for all of them to go to Canada for a winter course of instruction.

Plan Evacuation of Rhine

Geneva.—Germany and France are envisaging complete evacuation of the Rhineland and not a mere reduction of the forces of occupation, Dr. Stresemann, the German Foreign Secretary, told newspapermen prior to his departure for Berlin.

Many Bodies Recovered

Sebring, Fla.—One hundred and ten bodies have been recovered at Moorehaven and at least 200 more are rapidly decomposing. Col. S. L. Lowry, Jr., of Tampa, who took control of the region, told the Associated Press upon his return from Moorehaven.

BARON BYNG IS OPTIMISTIC OVER CANADA'S FUTURE

Toronto.—Ontario officially bade farewell and God speed to the retiring Governor-General of Canada, Lord Byng, and Lady Byng.

In terms expressing loyalty to the Crown, Premier Howard Ferguson addressed their excellencies at a banquet tendered them by Ontario Government. His Honor Col. Harry Cockshutt, the Lieutenant-Governor, and Right Hon. Sir William Mullock, Chief Justice of the Ontario Supreme Court, added their adieus to that of the Prime Minister.

When the victor of Vimy rose to reply, cheer upon cheer arose from the assembly.

"Ties that have been so deeply rooted, ties that have been consecrated by such endearing reminiscences, can never fade or wither," Baron Byng said after recounting briefly his admiration for the 300,000 Canadian troops who stormed Vimy Ridge on April 9, 1917, and his optimism for the future of Canada.

"And to our dying day we shall remember with feelings which cannot be expressed in words the extraordinary marks of confidence and good will we have received from your citizens."

"I am going home with an optimism about Canada that nothing can shake," the Governor-General said, amid cheers. "I have seen your country and your people and I go home optimistic more than ever for the Dominion."

Doing Excellent Work

Feeder Shows Held by Western Canada Help Livestock Industry

Moose Jaw.—The Dublin correspondent of the Meat Trades' Journal, London, England, compliments Western Canada on the excellent work being done for the livestock industry in the Feeder Shows, which have now become an established custom at Edmonton, Calgary, Moose Jaw and Winnipeg.

The correspondent advises the Irish breeders and rearers to follow the example: "As it would be an educational incentive to improve breeding all round, and enable those interested to experiment regarding the best crosses suitable for modern requirements, and so possibly increase the demand for young cattle from Ireland."

Sobriety In Italy

Mussolini Encourages Restrictions on the Use of Alcohol

London.—"Encouraged by Mussolini, the school authorities of Italy have forbidden the children to take bottles of wine to school with their lunches," Ed. J. Richardson, European secretary of the world League Against Alcoholism, returning from a tour of Italy, announced.

"Mussolini is working strenuously for sobriety among the youth. Italy now has a fascist law forbidding any winery to sell liquor to those under 18 years of age."

"Furthermore, there is a widespread movement to educate the more ignorant classes not to give any alcoholic drinks to children in the homes."

Airplanes Lost in Storm

Mobile, Ala.—Thirty-five aeroplanes at the Pensacola naval station were lost in the storm that isolated Pensacola for more than 24 hours, the Associated Press reported. There had been no loss of life, but property loss would reach $2,000,000.

The aeroplanes cost $45,000 each, and are practically a total loss. Loss to the naval station itself was heavy.

Here and There

The financial statement of the Canadian Pacific Railway issued at Montreal for the seven months of 1926 ending July 31st, shows the large increase in the net profits of $6,691,301.52 over the net profits for the first seven months of 1925. The gross earnings were $101,826,207.11, as compared with $90,343,867.75 for the first seven months of 1925.

Unofficial estimates prepared by the authorities of the Department of Commerce, Washington, estimated that Americans visiting Canada this year would spend approximately $190,000,000. This estimate was intimated to be very conservative and that it was more than likely that the amount would exceed the $200,000,000 mark.

Announcement was made recently over the signature of E. N. Todd, freight traffic manager, Canadian Pacific Railway, of the appointment of D. A. Wanklyn as Industrial Commissioner of the Railway, with offices in Montreal. Mr. Wanklyn replaces Graham W. Curtis, who has resigned, to fill the position of general manager for Montreal Rail and Water Terminals, Limited.

Otto H. Kahn, chairman of the board of directors of the Metropolitan Opera Company, accompanied by a party of internationally known financiers of New York, visited the National Exhibition at Toronto recently. Mr. Kahn, who is perhaps the leading art and music patron of the United States, addressed a luncheon of the directors of the Exhibition on September 2nd, the day of the Exhibition, which was set aside as "Music Day."

It is understood that purchases in Canada of 5,000 railway cars may result from the visit of the engineering expert, Mr. Vandergulch, and the Transport Commissariat's representative, Mr. Baronsky, who have been delegated by the Soviet Republic to investigate the possibility of securing this number in Canada. They have also been instructed to make a study of the organization of the Canadian railway shops and the repair methods in general.

Three wolf cubs were caught recently near Lake Doucelle in Northern Ontario by Arthur Beauvais, well-known driver of the Chateau Frontenac dog team at Quebec, and will be trained by Beauvais for the harness. He is confident that by mingling the wolves with huskie puppies for several months they will lose some of their wolfish nature and make an attractive addition to the Chateau team. Beauvais states that, while wolves have endurance, they have not the "heart" of a huskie dog.

Two world's swimming records were established at the Crystal Gardens swimming pool at Victoria recently, when Ethel McGarry, of New York, swam 880 yards in 12 minutes and 41 seconds, or nine seconds better than the previous woman's record for this event; and when Agnes Gerahy, also of New York, clipped five and two-fifths seconds off the previous record for 200 yards, by completing the distance in three minutes and 12 and three-fifths seconds.

Celebrating the change in name of the historic Dominion Express Company to that of the Canadian Pacific Express Company, a street parade in Montreal was held September first, the day of the change in name, consisting of every description of Express vehicle, new and old. Sam Nightingale, a driver of 30 years' service, headed the parade seated in a wagon of 1890 vintage, and hauled by "Babe," a horse that has been in constant service with the Company for 19 years. Similar parades were held at Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

New Telephone Rates are Necessary

BECAUSE

The old rates failed to provide any reserve provision for depreciation or storm damage on an investment by the people of the Province of $22,056,148.57.

The old rates barely paid for operating expenses and interest charges on the capital debt.

The interest charges of over a million and a quarter annually are fixed and must be paid.

Operating expenses have been cut by $10.08 per station in the last few years and can be cut no further without seriously impairing the service.

The added revenues will secure adequate protection of the investment and put the telephone utility on a sound financial basis.

The individual subscriber's share of the increase is small and he receives dollar for dollar of his rental in good telephone service.

With adequate and fair rates Alberta's Telephone system is second to none in America. As a subscriber you appreciate this.

A BROKEN DOWN SYSTEM.
This is a condition for doctors to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness, break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be the cause, they are almost numberless, its symptoms are much the same, the more prominent being: sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weakness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—vigour, vital strength and energy to throw off these morbid feelings, and as night accedes the day this may be more certainly secured by a course of THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY, THERAPION No. 3 than by any other known combination. So sure is it taken in accordance with the directions accompanying it, will the shattered vitality be restored. THE EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRESH.
and a new existence imparted in place of the old, so lately seemed worn-out, used-up, and valueless. The wonderful medicament is suitable for all ages, constitutions and conditions, in either sex; and it is difficult to imagine a disease or derangement whose main feature is weakness, that will not be speedily and permanently overcome by this recuperative remedy, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that had preceded it for this wide-spread & numerous class of human ailments. Assisted Colonization

By Chas. W. Peterson

In a vast country like Canada, containing within its boundaries so great a wealth of natural resources, there should be only two major problems in public policy, first, to provide for the gradual development of these resources by the introduction of new capital and by promoting a healthy increase in the working population, and, secondly, to so direct the quest for and distribution of such new population as to insure, as far as possible, that their energies shall be devoted to such occupations as will ensure a fairly balanced national production. Canada's present primary need is an increased rural producing and consuming population. With this need supplied, our industrial and transportation plants would be working overtime.

It is not difficult to comprehend that the days of easy accomplishment in the field of immigration are over. Our free, high quality lands are practically gone. The economic situation in Europe is such that people with capital are no longer available for settlement on our lands in any large numbers. The social revolution in the Old European civilizations—for it has been nothing less, has made the lot of the "under dog" vastly better than it ever was in so far as elimination of the fear of the consequences of sickness and unemployment is concerned. Steamship fares have been trebled. Canada must wake up to the uncomfortable fact that to obtain results even anywhere near approaching those of former days—and such must be considered absolutely inadequate in view of our present urgent population requirements—it will be necessary to pursue policies vastly different to those of the past and present.

We must, more or less, forget the meaning of the term "immigration" and learn the significance of the word "colonization." Nothing short of a comprehensive plan involving the actual placing of people on the land, followed by an intelligent, friendly interest in their welfare for a couple of years after settlement will bear fruitful results. It will be absolutely essential to provide financial assistance to worthy, selected families to enable them to make the move. Canada must acquire the habit of thinking in terms of tens of millions of dollars if we are to get anywhere with an effective plan of agricultural development.

Intelligently handled no investment we can make will yield greater returns than providing a large capital to be utilized as direct loans to experienced farmers settling on our vacant spaces, at a very low rate of interest with a repayment period of from 20 to 30 years, this capital to constitute a revolving fund. Private interests have not hesitated to adopt this policy in the west in a volume running into millions. The only bona fide colonization in Canada today is, in fact, secured on this basis. The first prairie settlement of Western Canada was organized on that plan. The early Mennonite colonization in Manitoba was based on Federal financial assistance. $100,000 was advanced to these people and faithfully repaid, with 6 per cent interest, in full, within six or seven years.

No class of people have a greater interest in the solution of our population problem than the country towns of Canada, where development has been comparatively slow for many years. Added population will give them an increased trading field and, in Eastern Canada at least, lead to the establishment of prosperous local industry, because the decided tendency now is for industrial concerns to locate in the smaller communities, where the cost of living is more moderate than in the large cities and where general conditions for labor are most favorable, entirely aside from the fact that the burden of taxation would be much lighter. With an increased producing and consuming population our smaller urban centre will again become what it has been in the past, and is in other countries, the backbone of the nation.

Would Help Revive Trade

English Manufacturers Hoping Prince Will Wear Straw Hat

Luton, the English town which is now making straw hats for the adornment of hundreds of thousands of heads next summer, wants to see the Prince of Wales wearing one.

It would be enough, thinks Luton, to revive a custom rapidly becoming extinct in England.

According to manufacturers Londoners buy fewer straw hats every year, probably because of the scarcity of hot weather and too much rain.

Luton is still prosperous because of the large foreign trade, but it would, of course, be far more prosperous if Englishmen kept straw among their usually large collection of hats.

Wireless in the Arctic

Wireless Phone Spans a Distance of 1,200 Miles

Twelve hundred miles was the distance spanned in what is believed to have been the first long distance wireless phone conversation carried on from the Arctic Ocean, it was learned upon the arrival in Vancouver of the Hudson's Bay Company's fur trading steamer Baychimo with a cargo of furs from the North valued at $250,000.

Last July, when the Baychimo was sailing in the Western Arctic, connection was established by her wireless operator, D. Mitchell, with another of the company's vessels, the Bay Rupert, near the northern entrance of Hudson's Bay, and successful conversations were held between officers of the two ships on two successive nights.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

ISRAEL JOURNEYING TOWARD CANAAN

Golden Text: Come thou with us, and we will do thee good. Numbers 10:29.

Lesson: Numbers 10:11-36.
Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

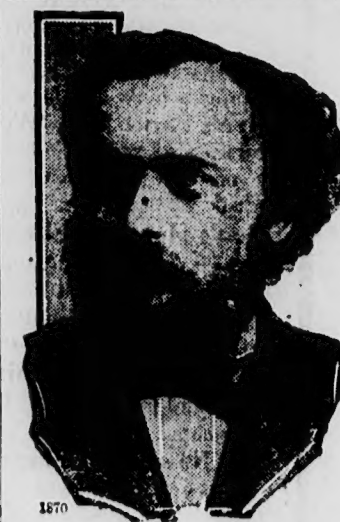

The Start From Sinai, verses 11-28. The children of Israel had left Egypt an undisciplined rabble. Now they are an orderly host. Each tribe has its appointed place on the march. Everything is ready for breaking camp. An indication of the Divine will is awaited.

And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the signal was given—the cloud which had been resting over the tabernacle "was taken up." What the nature of this cloud was, who shall say? Dr. G. Campbell Morgan voices the belief of many when he says it is best to consider it as a supernatural manifestation, indicating the presence and guidance of God. Recall the appearance of the guiding cloud at the crossing of the Red Sea.

"The soul must visit Sinai, but cannot live there; it must journey forth to Taber, Calvary and Olivet. The Church of God is moving on. Find thy place in the procession. The Risen Christ is leading the march; and the world will be his conquest. The cloud of God is over you, and his presence is your rear-guard (Isa. 52:12)" (Dr. F. B. Meyer).

Feet sore?—Minard's Liniment

A horse race at the Fair may be well enough, but trying to beat the iron horse to the crossing is hardly a "sport"—unless the coroner enjoys it.

From School Teacher To Great Eminence

A young man who was brought up on a farm in Western Pennsylvania studied diligently and qualified for district school teacher. Further pursuing his studies and teaching, he managed to save up enough money to put him thru medical college. After the Civil War, he began the practice of medicine in the new oil section of Pa., and often rode horse-back thru the woods to reach and relieve those who were seriously ill. He was a student of nature, knew and could easily recognize most of the medicinal plants growing in the woods. Later, he moved to Buffalo, N.Y., where he launched his favorite remedies, and, in a short time, they were sold by every druggist in the land. Today, the name of this man, Dr. R. V. Pierce, is known throughout the world. His Golden Medical Discovery is the best known blood medicine and tonic. More than fifty million bottles have been sold. If your druggist does not sell the "Discovery," in liquid or tablets, you can obtain a trial pkg. of the tablets by sending 10c to Dr. Pierce's Branch Laboratory in Bridgeburg, Ont.

When he was satisfied of his observations, which occupied hardly more than a brief hesitation, Lord Teddy moved closer on the cushioned divan—only the knee, which was crossed and pointed his way halted him. His voice, when he spoke, was little above a murmur.

"Please," he pleaded, "don't let us pretend. It's much nicer not to, really. You do it splendidly but you couldn't be wholly successful. When a woman has had so much experience, old enough, you know, so that a man knows there's nothing new under either the sun or the moon for her, then she has to pretend that she hasn't yet learned that everything is what it is and not what's in copy books. If she didn't she'd be too forbidding, so we know she's serious about it. But when a lovely girl makes believe she doesn't understand everything and everybody we know she's just kidding. Because she thinks she does, anyway. Don't you?"

Joanna regarded him elaborately, frankly imitating his own examination of her a moment before. "Yes," she said, her inscrutable smile playing upon him. "Then you have a way with you—as a teacher. I suppose you've a diploma, or some good references, or things like that?" His ready laughter bubbled through his mask of seriousness.

"Only experience, my lovely Joanna," he said, finding her hand among the cushions and taking possession of it with both of his own. "My experience will have to be your guide, and yours my ambition." When he had finished he gave her limp, fragile fingers a confidential pressure, and looked into her own shining eyes with a deep smoulder in his. She seemed to be unconcerned about her hand. She even moved her knee, a little, to help him out down the space between them. She said, then:

"We seem to be making a bargain of some sort. When you happen to think about it, tell me what it is won't you? The best I can get out of it is that you want to be a guide and you've ambitions of some kind. I like ambitions tremendously. It's so much fun flattening them out!"

"Yes," he admitted. "You'd flatten out almost anybody, I should imagine. You wouldn't be afraid of missing anything. That's why I'd like it awfully if—" She nodded at him. "I know," she finished for him. "If I'd give you my other hand, too, and let you fill up the rest of the distance between us. Then you could tell me just how pretty you think I am, and how you've always been crazy about hair like mine and you'd like to run your fingers through it, and maybe you'd have something new along that line that I'd never heard before and then you'd end up by saying I was just made for somebody to love a lot and you're somebody. Have I forgotten anything?"

"Not a thing," he declared. "When do we begin?"

This time they laughed together buoyantly. Joanna decided she was going to enjoy this fair haired, ebullient young man whose chief aim in life, according to Yvonne, was consoling neglected wives. He was amazingly handsome, as easily read—to her—as an open book, and she was convinced utterly harmless. Yvonne's picture of him puzzled her. She concluded he would be easily in his thirties, but, already she was becoming accustomed to older men than her "dancing boys" had been. John always had appeared older to her than any of the other chaps she knew, although he wasn't in years. She was astonished, secretly, at her own ability to be interesting to men who must have served many apprenticeships at more dazzling shrines than her's.

She was still disturbed by that ready supposition of his at their sudden meeting earlier in the afternoon. She reminded him of it again, and declared that she wouldn't be satisfied with him until he had made satisfactory explanation. He was not abashed.

"You were such a surprise," he assured her. "Not at all like the usual girl one sees about, in places. I'm fearfully fed up, you know, on girls, most girls, I mean. They've lost their enthusiasms. You're enthusiastic. Sort of caught me up sharply with it. And you haven't been spoiled. The girls one meets nowadays seem to be spoiled; that is, too many of them. The kind I know. They're the daughters of the crowd that have chow dogs, you know. Funny, but it has always struck me that when a woman gets a chow dog her daughter goes to the devil. Really doesn't go to the devil you know, but tries to act like she has been to him and found him too old-fashioned to be amusing. Now you're different. As soon as I saw you I was sure there were no chows in your family. Are there?"

"My friends," she called to them. "I'm in a daring mood tonight."

"Not having any family, there aren't any," she said, quietly.

"Right! There's a reference for you. You see I'm always right about women. You're a flapper without a chow background. There's a heap of difference. If I were a literary chap now, I'd put that in a book, or something. As it is you'll have to figure it out yourself. It's deeper than I usually go. I thought you must be something different, and I couldn't think of anything but singing girls and dancing girls. As a rule they've got sense, anyway. The debutantes that initiate them haven't—by the same rule. Now am I forgiven?"

"I never forgive a man anything," she declared promptly. "It always makes him dangerous."

"That's your difference," he discovered eagerly. "The kind of girl I don't like, the kind that isn't near so daring as you are, is the one who's always trying to forgive. They say it adds to excitement."

Yvonne's voice interrupted. She dropped into a chair and surveyed the pair on the divan. "You two seem to be hitting it off quite satisfactorily," she commented. "No entangling confidences, I hope." Of Joanna, she asked: "He's relieved himself of his own admirations for his pun at Doris and Pen, I suppose?"

"We'd just started on them when we cut all preliminaries and got down

Take a REAL HOLIDAY this FALL!

Go to Europe! It's your slack season here in Canada, but in England, the social season, with all its life and amusements, is just getting into its stride. The lights o' London are beckoning—the theatres and shops offer a diversity of interests and pleasures.

Plan now to make the crossing on a Cunard or Anchor-Donaldson Canadian Service Cabin Class Steamer. You will find the trip itself a most enjoyable experience. Sailing from Montreal means a thousand miles of sheltered river travel before you come to the open sea which is crossed in a few delightful days.

to ourselves," Teddy informed her ingenuously. "We've made progress. I shall be here tomorrow promptly at four continue matters."

"You will not!" Yvonne corrected him. "Miss Manners—by the way have you made it 'Joanna' yet? I see that you have!—Well then, Joanna has a day mapped out. There's some important things to attend to. And you can run along now, Teddy if you will. You may fix yourself a drink on your way out."

When he was gone Yvonne and Joanna took up the 'important' matters of the morning; the automobile, its chauffeur—"I'll find you one," Yvonne agreed—and a descent upon a famous jewelry house.

"There'll be a crowd here tomorrow night," Yvonne explained. "That's what Teddy was referring to. I'm making it a big crowd in your honor. I'd already planned a night of it, but I've elaborated for you. You'll meet everyone and they'll meet you. I'll have an unmarried senator and two married ones, without their wives; a few exiled Russian princes, and a smattering of their princesses. You'll like the Russian girls. Some South Americans who will make you think, always, of sapphires or black diamonds, and everybody who's in love with me or wants to be. That'll make a representative party I'm keen to know how you'll like it—the crowd I mean. Between Brandon and Roddy, to say nothing of Teddy, you'll be well presented. I fancy you'll be properly admired."

Joanna looked up sharply at the mention of Brandon and Kenilworth. She detected a change in Yvonne's tone as she pronounced the names. She wanted to ask her about these two, for she knew Yvonne shared with Brandon, at least, some intrigue concerning her. But she thought better of the impulse. Her thoughts went back to John.

"Have him come to you here, by all means," Yvonne insisted, shrewdly.

ly. "I fancy he is a young man who will require handling, if you continue to be concerned about him. Shall you—be much concerned about him?"

The suddenness of the challenge caught Joanna off her guard. She dropped her eyes. All at once she was conscious that her lips were quivering, and that she was concerned. It wasn't quite straight in her mind, but she had put away something Teddy Dominster had said for later consideration, and it came back to her, now a little confusedly. "She was enthusiastic. But a flapper without a chow dog background. And you haven't been spoiled."

She wondered why John had not understood as well as Teddy Dominster. She decided she'd find out, soon!

"I shan't be so much concerned," she said to Yvonne, "that I'll go around hunting sad music!"

WHEN YOUNG GIRLS GROW PALE AND THIN

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Should be Taken to Enrich the Blood.

When girls grow weak, pale and thin, parents should not neglect these symptoms; to do so means danger. The girl in her teens cannot develop into robust womanhood without an abundant supply of rich, red blood in her veins. It is the lack of this that is the great trouble with nine girls out of ten. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have achieved world-wide fame for their remarkable blood-making properties. In these pills there is vigorous health, with glowing cheeks and sparkling eyes for every weak, pale girl. The value of the pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Winifred Ruffy, Barton street west, Hamilton, Ont., who says:—"About two years ago my eldest girl got into very bad health. I took her to a doctor who advised having her tonsils removed, saying this was the seat of the trouble. We had them removed, but it did not help her, and she seemed to have absorbed so much poison from the trouble that she did not pick up at all. She could neither eat nor sleep, and what food she did take did not digest. Then she developed a cough that kept her awake at night, and went down in weight to 95 pounds. A neighbor said to me, 'You have tried so many things why not try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills?' I got some and before she finished the second box she began to show improvement. She continued the use of the pills for some time and is now in the pink of condition, able to work and play, and eat and sleep with all her old-time vigor. These statements can be verified by neighbors who watched her restored from ill health to perfect health."

If your medicine dealer does not keep these pills you can get them by mail at 50c a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Many Join Wheat Pool

Since June 11th, 1926, just four thousand farmers have signed up the following acreage in Saskatchewan:—Wheat, 535,950 acres; oats, 49,147 acres; barley, 14,460 acres; flax, 17,839 acres; rye, 12,745 acres; making a total of 625,141 acres in three months.

Saves $24 A Year

Cooking experts figure that the SMP Enamelware Roaster will save the average Canadian family fully $24.00 a year in meat bills. The secret is, it roasts the meat with very little shrinkage. Also, it makes cheap cuts taste like the best ones.

You place the roast in the roaster, put on the cover; the roaster does the rest. No basting required. Every roast is perfectly cooked.

The cover fits close, so that cooking odors cannot escape. Grease can't spatter out, which means a sweet clean oven. Prices range from 85c. to $3.50 each, depending on size and finish—and don't forget the saving of $24.00 yearly.

Western Canada Wheat

"The Wheat of Western Canada is unsurpassed anywhere in the world," writes the "Free Press" editorially, and adds: "In the marketing of Western wheat the outstanding development of recent years, of course, has been the creation of the Pools—the most ambitious undertaking which has resulted from the co-operative movement of the Western farmers."

Painless and perfect in their action, Miller's Worm Powders are always a safe and reliable remedy for children who show symptoms of worms. These symptoms are easily recognizable in a feverish restlessness, frequently ending in convulsions. A point of notable importance is that after Miller's Worm Powders have expelled the worms, the stomach and bowels are toned up into a very healthy condition.

CARRIED WIFE TO BED

Suffered So She Could Not Walk. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minesing, Ontario.—"I am a practical nurse and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to suffering women. For three months I was almost helpless and could not sit at the table long enough to drink a cup of tea. Many a time my husband carried me to bed, I would be so weak. Then he read in the paper of a woman suffering as I did who got better after taking the Vegetable Compound, so he went and got it for me. When I had taken three bottles I was just like a new woman and have had splendid health ever since. When I feel any bearing-down pains I always take it; sometimes a half bottle or whatever I need. It is my only medicine and I have told many a one about it. Any one wanting to know more about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I will gladly write to her. I do all I can to recommend it for I feel I owe my life and strength to it." —Mrs. NEAL BOWSER, R.R. 1, Minesing, Ontario.

Do you feel broken-down, nervous, and weak sometimes? Do you have this horrid feeling of fear which sometimes comes to women when they are not well? Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent to take at such a time. It always helps, and if taken regularly and persistently will relieve this condition.
